DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group II in the reply filed on 8/23/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no search burden on the examiner. This is not found persuasive because each of the groups' subject matter requires additional searches beyond the other Groups' search.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 1-14,23,25-29 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 8/23/04.

Claim Objections

Claim 21 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. It appears that claim 21 claims the same subject matter as that of claim 18.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

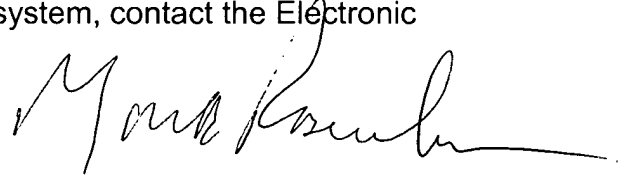

Claims 15-22,24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art (APA) in view of either Atkins or the British patent. APA is the subject matter discussed on the first few pages of the specification i.e. the process of milling niobium material. Single size media are used to mill the material which is an inefficient milling process. Both Atkins and the British patent solve this problem by disclosing a similar process including the use of different sized media. In order to efficiently mill the material, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify APA by providing different sized media, taught to be desirable by both of the secondary references. The exact size of the media would then have been an obvious design choice only based on several factors such as material being treated and desired end results.
